

Cousin Emma's Bed and Breakfast in "Mayberry" Mount Airy

Mid 1800's historic home complete with a remaining slave cabin

Furnished in generations of family furnishings, clothing, and treasures

501 South Main Street just three doors up from Wally's and the Squad Car Tours

Come for "Tea, Tales, and Tour" of the fascinating house and property.....High Tea, Historical Stories, Tour of the main house as well as the original slave cabin out back. Serving spiced tea and homemade goodies, often Civil War era gingerbread from long ago family book dating back to 1800 and served on antique china from detergent boxes every housewife carefully collected.....circa 1870-1890's.

By appointment with a maximum of six persons....wonderful for a small celebration, gift, or other special events. Photos are not only allowed but welcome! Children under age ten would not enjoy this hour and a half time span, however. Put your group together and call us for an agreed upon time and day.

TEN DOLLARS per person with the proceeds going to send area children to the local Salvation Army Camp serving Surry County...a week that can be life changing for these deserving youngsters ages 6-12.

Dress code is from 'Buckingham Palace fancy' to vacation casual. Kindly refrain from wearing perfume.

Reservations required with punctuality appreciated so as not to miss anything you would enjoy here.

336-756-5656..... or possibly a doorbell ring if we are available to briefly chat (car at steps indicates we are home).

cousinemmas@weebly.com